

Privacy policy

We strive to always protect your personal information in the best possible way. Our goal is to comply with all applicable laws and rules for personal data protection (GDPR). This policy will help you to understand what kind of information we collect and how it is used. By agreeing to the policy on the Website in connection with the disclosure of information, you agree to the processing of your personal data in accordance with the below.

HANDLING OF INFORMATION

You can visit our website without providing any personal information. We only record data that is not personally related, such as IP address, reference page, etc. for statistical purposes. This information is only used to improve our range and our website. We are not able to directly link this information to you. Personal data is only stored if you voluntarily submit your information.

By registering and/or ordering you agree that Swedish Flavour Experience Development AB stores and uses information about your mission orders and the contact details you provide. The data is stored internally and used to fulfill our commitments toward you and better satisfy your needs as a customer and provide you with better service. The data is stored and used for information and marketing purposes. You can contact us any time to see the personal information we store. The information is only stored for as long as it must be by applicable laws unless you have approved the continued use of the data.

FORWARDING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Relevant personal information may be provided to transport companies if necessary for the delivery of goods. Relevant personal information is provided to our partners who handle incoming and outgoing invoices. All transfers of personal information are made through secure data connections. Information is never disclosed to third parties for marketing purposes.

DATA SECURITY

We protect our website and other systems with technical and organizational solutions against loss, damage, access, changes or distribution of your data by non-authorized persons.

COOKIES

We use our own as well as third-party cookies for statistical purposes on the site. The use of “cookies” is a generally established way of improving user-friendliness on the Internet.

You are fully entitled to, at no cost, obtain all information about the personal data we store that concern you. You also have the right to request changes, block or delete this data.
